DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment/Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments filed 5/5/05 with respect to claims 1 and 9 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.
2. In response to Applicant's arguments that Kotliar does not teach a pulse dose of nitrogen, it should be noted that Kotliar does teach a valving mechanism , which valving mechanism is fully capable of providing pulsed doses of nitrogen. As such, the Examiner maintains the rejection with respect to claims 1 and 9

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1 and 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Kotliar (US 5,924,419).
5. As to claim 1, Kotliar teaches a compact and portable hypoxic delivery apparatus 10 by producing from ambient air (via 13) a product gas having a lower levels of oxygen concentration and delivering the product gas to a user of the apparatus, the apparatus comprising a pressure swing adsorption unit having at least one adsorber bed 20,21 to receive ambient air and adsorb the nitrogen or oxygen from the ambient air to produce both a nitrogen enriched gas and an oxygen enriched gas, and control means 22 for delivering the nitrogen enriched gas (See Col. 4, lines 12-18) in pulse doses to a user at selectable rates during inhalation by user.

6. As to claim 9, Kotliar teaches a compact and portable hypoxic delivery apparatus 10 by producing from ambient air (via 13) a product gas having a lower levels of oxygen concentration and delivering the product gas to a user of the apparatus, the apparatus comprising a pressure swing adsorption unit having at least one adsorber bed 20,21 to receive ambient air and adsorb the nitrogen or oxygen from the ambient air to produce both a nitrogen enriched gas and an oxygen enriched gas, and means 22 for selectively delivering either the nitrogen enriched gas or the oxygen enriched gas to a user during inhalation by user.

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claims 2-8 and 10-15 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

8. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP

Art Unit: 3743

§ 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
